“Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.)” Hebrews 10:23 KJV To hope is not a bad thing; it’s a very good thing. It’s believing with desire and confidence that what is wanted can be had or that events will turn out for the best. Sometimes it’s difficult, especially in the midst of trials, but God has promised you a future and a hope (Jeremiah 29:11). Different seasons will come in your life -times of sickness and healing, weeping and laughing, gaining and losing-but as long as you remember to continually declare that Life Is Very Good, your outlook will always be hopeful. Let this devotional inspire you and your family on a daily basis throughout the year to grow into the greater things God has for you. If God declared it to be very good, why should we think any other way? Rob Sanchez has a dynamic and passionate ministry called by God to bring the Body of Christ around the world into their destiny through the prophetic ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ. Together with his wife Juanita, he’s committed to awakening the Kingdom of God inside every generation, and his focus is always to reach and release believers into their true potential within their local Body of Christ. He resides in Central California with his wife Juanita and their 3 daughters.
