Who is Melchizedek? Why did Nicodemus go to see Jesus by night? What was Isaiah really seeking when he received his vision of God? Is there a difference of the Tabernacle and the Temple? What should the church look like today in light of our own cultural context that is so different from when the New Testament was written? Ultimately all of us are seeking answers to two large questions: “Who am I?” and “Where do I fit into God’s plan for the universe?” All of these questions I tackle in this this book. I am not a true theologian in the sense that I can spend twenty year studying a single verse or chapter. I am a pastor, I normally only get a week or two to look into these kinds of things. Over the years I have had lingering questions that I have never found satisfactory answers for. This has led me to seek God and ask these questions from Him, His word and Godly men of old that thought as I did. Join me in my questions and my musings.
