Sheryl James has never felt good about herself. She suffered a childhood of peers, teachers, and even parents who have always made her feel like she just doesn't belong because she has never fit into a size six. Or a size fourteen. She has been a big girl her whole life and as much as she has tried to fight it, the rest of the world has forced her to define herself by her weight. She has never realized that she is a sexy BBW and that the world should bow to her feet and worship her big DD breasts, her round fat bottom, and her sexy fleshy thighs.

But her life is about to change. One night while walking home after a stressful shift at the diner where she works Sheryl is saved from an attack by something not of this world. Her hero is Alex, a tall, dark stranger who is about to show Sheryl how special she really is and how to channel her inner beast and let her animal lust reign free
