A New Light: The Ecumenical Catholic Communion Dean Jones

This book tells the story of the growth of the Ecumenical Catholic Communion. This Communion of Communities is blooming across the United States as people of various denominations, mostly Roman Catholic, have a need to find a spiritual home that is fully Catholic, but also has an open table, and welcomes people who are on many paths. This is the well-told story of the journey of inclusion, where all are indeed welcome in the pews and at the table. Women are ordained in this communion, and marriage issues are no bar to being welcome. This is a joyful story of the work of many to make a home where everyone can feel at home.
