Wicked Memories

Arsen found himself going back in time as he held Steel while she slept a fitful sleep. Anne Sinclair was on his mind and how they got together in the first place.

He found himself feeling a little guilty as he relived their first night together. Arsen held his true love in his arms and recalled that fateful night Anne Sinclair and one of her friends found him in a small bar after a tough first day at college.

Anne's treatment of him was revealed. Arsen's memories of it all had him feeling sick.

A text had him waiting at dawn for someone who might be able to tell him something which might get them out of the predicament they were both in.

After a talk with his driver, Paul, as they waited for the texter to show up, Arsen knew he had more to do before asking Steele to become his wife and start the family he was beginning to want pretty badly.

But will this be the end for him when he sees whoever it is behind the wheel and makes a decision all might regret?
