A Fun, Standalone Highlander Time Travel Romance SHORT STORY

Colin McGrath is the loyal warrior of his king. The king is the man who saved him when he was younger. He had grown up as an orphan, but the last several years the king had taken Colin in as his own. The powerful warrior though is being ordered to marry a girl he knows nothing about to please the king. Sarah McCloud must be special to have the king order this marriage. But Colin soon finds out she isn't like anyone he could imagine. Her father had made her marry for the move up in society. There are many more secrets under the surface of his new wife. They soon find love in each other's arms and a deeper understand of lives that were never easy for them. Sarah shares the secrets of how her father kept her under guard for so many years and how her mother was just as ruthless in behavior. On the way to visit her parents one afternoon though she is kidnapped and Colin must track her and their unborn child down. He uses the skills he learned while living in the woods before the king found him. Finding her he learns the truth behind who had her kidnapped.
