The Enoch Colonies: Cities of Light Caroline R. Larson
At last, an exhilarating look at some of the glorious Cities of Light and other landmarks that prophesy foretells. Caroline R. Larson (1959-2011) prayed to her Heavenly Father for information on the places of refuge that would harbor those whom the Lord would spare and protect. The answer to her prayers far exceeded her expectations, as her dreams were then filled with visions of these wonderous cities. Keeping daily journal entries of what Caroline saw; she realized that she could help her friends and family see that out of the devastation, would come glorious miracles. What would arise out of the ashes of modern civilization would be cities of hope, refuge, safety, health, order and industry. Through them, the work of the Lord would move forward and the veil would thin as prophesy becomes realized towards the return of the Savior. Descriptions include: • Who would be allowed to enter the Cities of Light • Some of the ways people would people get there • What the residences and communities were like • What technology was used to power the houses and industries • How commerce would be conducted internally and between similar colonies • Health Care systems for residents • How welfare and homelessness issues were resolved • How her family and communities would be affected. • How the Heavenly Highway would facilitate the mass migration of Gods people to their destinations • Much more!
