What if love was a person? If it had a diary to write its true feelings what would it say? What if someone transcribed the history of our hearts on paper? If our heart could speak what would it say? The HEART Diary is the transcription of the full human experience. It is the honest expression of: love, hate, regret, loyalty, pain, peace, happiness, sadness, and joy. It will make you laugh. It will make you cry. It will make you reflect on the good and bad times in life, love, and relationship. It is the much needed confession of our hearts without fear or restriction. Marcus Y. Rosier writes with such vulnerability and honesty. He speaks from both a male and female perspective highlighting the euphoric highs of love, and the abysmal lows of a broken heart.
