Some Quotes From of Abraham Lincoln Quotes: 365 Quotes By Abraham Lincoln

- A capacity, and taste, for reading, gives access to whatever has already been discovered by others. It is the key, or one of the keys, to the already solved problems. And not only so It gives a relish, and facility, for successfully pursuing the yet unsolved ones.
- A woman is the only thing I am afraid of that I know will not hurt me.
- Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed, is more important than any other one thing.
- Better to remain silent and be thought a fool, than to speak and remove all doubt.
- Determine that the thing can and shall be done, and then we shall find the way.
- Few can be induced to labor exclusively for posterity; and none will do it enthusiastically. Posterity has done nothing for us; and theorize on it as we may, practically we shall do very little for it, unless we are made to think we are at the same time doing something for ourselves.

- Honest statesmanship is the wise employment of individual meanness for the public good.
- He who molds the public sentiment makes statutes and decisions possible or impossible to make
- I am a slow walker, but I never walk backwards.

- I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crises. The great point is to bring them the real facts.
- I believe this Government cannot endure, permanently half slave and half free.
- I do the very best I know how , the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end.

Some More Quotes From of Abraham Lincoln Quotes: 365 Quotes By Abraham Lincoln

- I don't believe in a law to prevent a man from getting rich; it would do more harm than good.
- I laugh because I must not cry. That is all. That is all.
- I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives. I like to see a man live so that his place will be proud of him.
- I say 'try'; if we never try, we shall never succeed. I think that if anything can be proved by natural theology, it is that slavery is morally wrong. God gave man a mouth to receive bread, hands to feed it, and his hand has a right to carry bread to his mouth without controversy.
- If I am killed, I can die but once; but to live in constant dread of it, is to die over and over again.
