Pillars of Metaphysics: First Spiritual Teaching Text Ruben Cedeño

This book is dedicated to whoever begins the study of Life.

This book is also dedicated to all the facilitators that, day in and day out, gather people by the hundreds in their home, libraries and classrooms with the sole purpose of teaching them how to think properly, to make them aware of God's existence in the heart of all men, the reality of the Spiritual Hierarchy, and the knowledge of the Rays and the Laws. This endeavour, they assume without any kind of financial interest and devoid of the spiritual pride of considering themselves "gurus" in the Oriental fashion. These facilitators are the pioneers in the instruction of the New Age Teachings and are World servers that, dedicatedly and quietly, make the Light shine –the Light of God that never fails.

May this offering serve as textbook to all those who work in the spiritual instruction of others at the dawn of the Permanent Golden Age.

The teachings contained herein and in this series of books as a whole are barely notes or supplementary material on the knowledge that every human being should have regarding himself, those around him, the Realms of Nature and the world surrounding him, both tangible and intangible, planetary and beyond.

These teachings are known as "The Wisdom" and it doesn't belong to anyone in particular, it belongs to us all. What the author has done is to synthesize, compile and present, in a simple manner, this Knowledge revealed by the Great Masters of Mankind, several of the Great World Religions and countless spiritual groups.

Let us hope that in these pages you will attain the necessary guidance to find within yourself what you are looking for.

The Goodwill, Wisdom and Love that you long for are within you. Attain it, know it, live it, and project it!
