Wise Man Foolish Man Parable: Do Unto Others Ryan Curtis

Family Parables® - Parables from Jesus, Application for Family™ - are a series of fictional books for kids, teenagers and parents. The books follow a family through everyday experiences as they discover the truths the Savior taught 2000 years ago. In Wise Man Foolish Man Parable: Do Unto Others, teenagers follow Christian as he learns to step in and help others even when it isn't cool. He finds guidance in the wise man foolish man parable and sees the power of treating others how he wants to be treated. Christian discovers that what is right isn't always popular but finds joy in anchoring to the rock-solid foundation of Jesus Christ. At the end of the book, there are topics and questions for the family to discuss. These conversations can help your parents and teenagers discuss building a foundation on the Savior. Such a foundation will give them strength to weather the storms of life, as Jesus taught. Children will enjoy Wise Man Foolish Man Parable: Love Your Enemies. Parents can read Wise Man Foolish Man Parable: Judge Not to get a complete perspective of this family's experience as they apply the Savior's teachings.
