Little Bird: It's not actually about birds Reina C. Cuzdey

These poems are about depression, love, and finding who you are. They tell of the good things in life along with the bad things that come from your mind and emotional being. They speak of someone who hides themselves away and can't tell right from wrong. They tell of grief and loss, losing yourself, and letting yourself go. There are also poems that speak of the good things that are bound to happen and the joy that happens in our lives; the bright and euphoric things that happen or that will happen. They mention turning over a new leaf from who you are and becoming a better person and standing up for what you believe in. This book was written By Reina Cuzdey in order to achieve a goal to write a book before 2015. She is currently 13 years old.
