She wanted a safe home for her and her baby...
But what kind of man agrees to marry a pregnant widow?

When Mara lost her husband in a tragic horse riding accident, she thought that she could never love again. All she wanted was a safe and happy place to raise the baby that she was carrying.

When she read the mail order bride advertisement of a cattle farmer seeking a wife who would work beside him, but that he did not require to fulfill any other wifely duties, she thought it would be the perfect sanctuary. But Mara's life is thrown into upheaval when her new husband's past comes back to haunt him. Will love prevail?
