All weavers accumulate a large amount of thread with time. This book is a guide to help weavers, both novice and experienced, with color blending while simultaneously reducing the amount of their stash. This book has 22 original projects, mostly cotton kitchen towels. Detailed instructions are included how to blend colors for these projects but can be applied to many things other than just kitchen towels. There is a discussion about color theory and even some games to help weavers with their designs. If you are a weaver and have wondered how to use up some of your abundance, this book is perfect for you!
