Championship Point Paul Hewlett

Championship Point is the story of a sports reporter showing up at a pre-Wimbledon press conference, as the players await the draw to be made for the tournament at SW19. Hank Colburn is a sports historian and he quizzes Roger Federer on previous eras of tennis players and where he might have liked to have played had he been given the chance to do so? Federer casually dealt with the question, but upon waking the next morning he found that he wasn't in 2013 any longer he was instead in 1989 and facing a Wimbledon final and centre court showdown against Boris Becker. This science-fiction sports story just got real...
