In full color with over 100 illustrations and corresponding discussion questions, Perspectives on Argument provides the visual appeal that students expect and considers visual argument in our media-oriented culture. It continues to present Nancy Wood's intuitive explanation of Toulmin, Classical, and Rogerian approaches as well as rhetorical and visual analysis. Her classroom-tested assignment sequence allows students to progress from easy to more difficult writing tasks and to integrate reading, thinking, writing, and research skills at every stage. The many readings and visuals help students consider the range of opinion before refining or formulating their own.
