Welcome to a secret world, a place where passion, obsession, and the most startling human perversions come together to create a labyrinth of lust and pain, of hope, love, and, sometimes, even humor. From this gray area, where the lines between right and wrong have been blurred, thousands of people write to Dr. Ana Maria Polo. Sometimes, because of their explicit content, the letters are vetoed for airing on television. Now, in her sensational new book, Dra. Polo presents some of these censored letters. Caught in a whirlwind they cannot escape, many troubled people reach out to Dr. Polo, the acclaimed television jurist, in the hope that her common sense and unerring ability to find justice and forgiveness can help them find their way. You may find the contents of this book shocking. But the stirring humanity of those seeking help will make you cry and laugh, and will help you understand what Dr. Polo knows only too well: everyone of us has been in a place in which we never expected to find ourselves. It's when we ask for help that we can often find a way out of almost any situation.
