A Tentative Balance Rick Friedman

A Tentative Balance takes you from the author's childhood, to the tumultuous time of riots and protests at Ohio State in the late 60s, through the late 70's and 80s in New York City, describing Studio 54, the club scene, Woodstock and other significant events and places that the author experienced. His quest to escape a psychologically abusive childhood, coupled with his pursuit and quest to find love with the elusive, beautiful, blonde, sexy New York City model leaves the reader spellbound, sad and ecstatic. This book grabs your emotions and takes them on a roller coaster ride as the author guides you through the ups and downs of his life,

I handed her a glass and she took a long drink. This was so unbelievable! It seemed like a slow motion dream as our bodies moved towards each other. Somehow the glasses were gone, and as my arms circled around her, those incredible eyes locked onto mine as we slid together.
