Drawing Sylvia: An Autistic Child Speaks (Volume 1) Katherine Yu

The 'Drawing Sylvia' series is a beautifully illustrated series of books documenting the life-journey of Sylvia, a child diagnosed with high-functioning autism. She shares her journey through drawing characters that she finds fascinating or vivid scenes depicting her adventures. On the pages within are samples of her drawings from the time her mother put crayons and paper before her and how her world expanded as a result. In 'Drawing Sylvia', three crucial topics are addressed. First is how to communicate with your autistic child. Second is building a relationship with him/her and third, remain hopeful after learning you have a special-needs child.
