Breast cancer touches the hearts and souls of everyone exposed to the disease. Annually billions are spent on medical research and treatments that refuse to respect a basic tenet of the Hippocratic Oath: First Do No Harm. Each year younger and younger women are diagnosed with this deadly dis-ease. Ani Kaspar, a passionate humanitarian with a strong history of women's rights activism, abandons Wall Street to pursue a tranquil life. Healing herself of Chronic Fatigue and Fibromyalgia with a living foods diet, she settles in the Land of Enchantment, Santa Fe, NM. A few years into her new life and starting a wellness consultancy, BodyByBliss™, she is diagnosed with severe cancer in both breasts. With fierce spirit and determination Ani challenges "the norm." Refusing to believe what conventional medicine preaches about breast cancer, Ani seeks her own truth. Committed to healing naturally, she investigates alternative breast cancer treatment options in the United States. Four years and $250,000 later, Ani's breast cancer is indolent, but for how long? Pelicans, Coconuts & Butterflies takes us on a journey of exploration, devotion, and stubbornness: This is Ani's intimate story of healing, an extraordinary story of courage, commitment and compassion. Ani's journey through breast cancer is everywoman's journey during a worldwide epidemic. Ani advocates a comprehensive mind, body and spirit overhaul that includes intense introspection, total body cleansing and nourishing, and a deeply intimate relationship with yourself, your life and your personal divinity. Join Ani in her passionate and loving invitation to the world medical profession, our scientific research community, and to our beautiful aching breasts, to urge the world of medicine to deliver to us-its clients-natural ways to heal cancer now.
