To The Lions Claire Meadows

To The Lions takes an honest and raw look at the pain in human relationships. It is a personal collection with universal themes. The imagery takes your breath away.' - Josie-Anne Gray. 'As good as Ginsberg.' - John LaZar. In this third collection of poetry, writer Claire Meadows takes us on an unflinching journey through emotive, challenging and often painful places. The poetry challenges the reader with its honesty, and unflinchingly embraces the intensity of relationships, love and sex in powerful, taut and inventive language. The result is a collection of poems that may take the reader to dark places, but consistently shines with beautiful and wondrous imagery.
