700 Verses in praise of the Divine Mother of Hairakhan.

Every word of this great prayer is a divine mantra.

Reading and reciting it cures incurable diseases, rids the mind of worries and solves all problems, while the aspirant on the spiritual path attains the divine perfection he desires: prosperity in life, worldly happiness and spiritual peace. (Hairakhan Babaji)

The transliteration from Sanskrit in Roman letters allows Western readers to recite the mantras in their original language.

It is said that even the mere listening to the sound of these mantras leads to liberation.

Shri Shastriji followed Babaji like a shadow, accompanying Him as chief priest. Prolific writer, Sanskrit scholar, he was one of Shri Mahendra Maharaj Baba's closest disciples. He wrote in mantric verses about Hairakhan Baba many years before His physical appearance on 1970. Shastriji was the mouthpiece of Him. When Babaji was present, Shastriji was the one who put across through the spoken word to the many thousands who came the timeless wisdom of the Sanatan Dharma.
