Izzy's client has a secret. A big one.

Izzy Sanders runs her own design business with assistance from her best friend Roberta. Working from New York to the Hamptons for rich clients who are constantly redecorating their beach homes, she has plenty of work.

Izzy is focused on work, while Roberta is focused on finding a rich husband.

Two complete opposite personalities are the best of friends. Izzy is plain and curvy, and Roberta is model thin and draws attention wherever she goes.

Next to Roberta, Izzy is almost always ignored, but she doesn't mind because all she cares about is her business.

When her company gets hired by a mysterious client who values his privacy, she and Roberta go to see his house and meet the elusive client.

Izzy meets a handsome man, Simon, driving a large pickup truck filled with straw in the driveway while waiting for the homeowner. She finds herself shocked by the lust he creates in her and is completely taken by surprise when Simon asks her out on a date, despite being next to the beautiful Roberta, who seems to repulse him.

Simon has a secret, will she forgive him for his deception when she finds out?"
