The constitutional and statutory framework for local government in South Africa itself constitutes a complete break with the past. This new edition of this book remains a practical workbook on local government. "Municipal Administration" is designed to assist councillors and officials to understand and apply the new legislative framework for local government. This work will assist lawyers, engineers, business people and indeed all those business and professional people, as well as civic associations, who have dealings with municipalities and would like to understand their structures and functions.
