Between Two Harbors: Reflections of a Catalina Island Harbormaster Doug Oudin

Catalina Island-the name conjures images of a pristine tropical island. Located twenty-six miles off the coast of Southern California, Catalina Island is known as the "island of romance" for good reason. A popular destination for boaters, fishermen, and tourists, it's a recreational mecca at sea-a place where people come to escape from the reality of urban life. Boasting 86,000 square miles of unspoiled and undeveloped natural beauty, Catalina is an island paradise with wild animals, surrounded by an ocean teeming with fish. For thirty-two years, Charles Douglas "Doug" Oudin lived a fantasy life on this secluded oasis. As the former harbormaster, he saw it all-harrowing storms, dramatic ocean rescues, traumatic accidents, and the tragic death of actress Natalie Wood. Encounters with sharks, buffalo, wild boar, and even a "sea serpent" are just a few of the strange and unique experiences he had while living on the island. Now, in this memoir, he shares his story. For those who know and love Catalina-and those who have always wanted to visit-Between Two Harbors reveals a glimpse of what life on the island is really like.

Charles Collier:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Between Two Harbors: Reflections of a Catalina Island Harbormaster can make you experience more interested to read.
