Ally has never believed in true love. After watching her parents' failed relationship and bitter divorce, Ally built up walls to keep herself from caring too much for someone and risk getting hurt. But when she runs into AJ as shots are being fired above their heads, that all changes. AJ is on the run. He is not just a criminal, but also a billionaire and as he saves Ally's life he also unknowingly puts it in danger. When these two lives collide, will it be enough to break down Ally's walls and allow live into her heart, or will AJ be the whole reason she should guard her heart.
