This book is the vision of hell. You are taken through the eyes of Daniel into places you would never dream about. Through the years of receiving prophetic words from God, this book is a change from other books you might have read from the author.

You are taken on a rarely seen trip into the deeper parts of Satan's domain. As you travel around the different parts of hell, you see how the things you do today direct your life ever after. The point is not to scare you but to enlighten you as to where you might find yourself.

We find this book a very good read and one that has changed my life profoundly.
