Belfast today. A Belfast without 'The Troubles.' A Belfast with the decadence of Milan, Paris, New York. Enter Malcolm Ashfield. Belfast's first Private Investigator. He's tough, ultra Cool, favours sharp designer suits adores fast cars and faster women. An urbane, ruthless but apparently flawed ex. Policeman fighting demons of self doubt because of a botched police operation that saw his expulsion from the force.

The Girl with the Long Blonde Hair is a contemporary action thriller. An outrageous literary cocktail liberally splashed with exaggerated characters, high living, bizarre sex and violent action set in post troubles Belfast.

It's just another day for Malcolm Ashfield a Private Investigator hired to work on a case of political corruption. A case generously laced with sexual deviancy, provocative women, violence, gruesome torture at the teeth of a fighting dog, transsexuals, unrequited love and the opportunity to conquer his fear and redeem himself from his past, and just to make things really difficult, there's the possibility of sudden death at the barrel of a gun wielded by Belfast's first ever literal serial killer nicknamed 'The Bogey Man'.
