White House (McGarvey Book 7) David Hagberg

On American soil, a terrorist bomb explodes at a Georgetown restaurant, killing CIA operative Kirk McGarvey's girlfriend and wounding his daughter. Now McGarvey seeks vengeance while at the same time struggling with the growing crisis in the Far East where a mysterious underground nuclear explosion has destroyed a power station off the coast of North Korea.

From the corridors of power in Washington to the Japanese space launch center at Tanegashima, White House tells a gripping story of suspense about one man's race to sabotage a cunning terrorist operation before it eliminates the White House-- and everyone he loves.
