The Apostle Peter once said that “there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved.” Such a name must be well worth finding out about! The name that Peter referred to was Jesus Christ the Nazarene, but He was, and is, known by many different names. In this devotional and meditational book, twelve different authors write about twenty-six of them, including the Lamb of God, the Son of David, the Great High Priest and the Only Begotten. Some of Jesus’ names were given by God, some by men and some He gave Himself, but each name tells us something valuable and precious about His character, His Person or His work.

The Apostle Paul said of a future day that “at the name of Jesus every knee will bow”. This book has been published to encourage its readers to do so today - and every day.
