This book has been an Amazon bestseller on no fewer than eight Amazon sites. The authors have proven track records, so

Imagine where your business would be if you could tap into the expertise of some of the leading marketing brains available. People who have proven themselves by writing bestsellers. Books that only became bestsellers because the authors put into practice the techniques that they wrote about.

What if some of those people were TED speakers, or had made fortunes for themselves, and their clients, by putting into practice the marketing strategies and tactics they had perfected over years?

Would you, and your business, benefit if you had access to the knowledge these people possess?

With that knowledge, could you realise your dreams?

Stop dreaming.

This is the real world and you have the opportunity to turn your dream into reality.

In this Creating Business Growth Stefan Drew brings together over 20 leading marketing minds. They include several best selling authors. But what distinguishes the contributors is that they don't just write about marketing .. their businesses have grown simply because they practice what they preach!
