Kalindi looks into the vast grey of the Arabian sea from her swanky Bombay flat. She has it all in the eyes of the society. A gorgeous and a successful husband, two adorable kids, supportive in-laws, designer threads, biannual foreign vacations. Everything looks perfect from the outside. But is it ? Kalindi's story will resonate with hundreds of married women of her ilk who seem to be living a golden life in a golden cage. As Kalindi hits the cold, hard floor of depression, she realises that she has enough spunk in her to bounce back. Diwali - which is a week away - is not going to be as dark as she'd thought.
