A Bride for a Billionaire, Book 3:

Grace married her sexy billionaire boss Adrian Salazar in order to keep him from being deported. After her surprise pregnancy and the birth of their newborn son, Grace suddenly discovers that she desires, more than anything, for her aloof husband to fall in love with her. Can a marriage based off of nothing but convenience and wealth ever turn into something as beautiful as Grace yearns for, or did their circumstances doom them from the start?

"It wasn't his fault if he didn't love me. That had never been part of our arrangement. Adrian Salazar needed a bride for a green card, and nothing more. Yet, somewhere deep inside of me, I'd been hoping for us to fall in love. I'd been hoping that one day I might find my happy ending, like I'd always seen in the movies. But, life is not a movie. Life is tough and difficult and not at all fair. I knew that, I understood that, I could make due with such a world... Why, then, was it so painful for him not to say those three little words back to me? Why did it make it feel as though my world might shatter into a million pieces of misery?"
