Always Faithful and True Janet Difabio

An up-and-coming career, a renewed friendship, a promising future -until evil trespasses. An inspirational story about faith, hope, and love. Twenty-four year old, Gianna Stefano is raised in a devout Catholic, Italian family in rural Montana. Just graduating college and desiring independence, Gianna relocates to New York City. Her parents are reluctant at first, but when Gianna is reacquainted with family friend, Dan Christiansen, they realize they must let their only daughter spread her wings and fly. Gianna and Dan have a promising future together. But their love is tested, when a colleague violates Gianna's trust. Is all hope lost or is Gianna and Dan's faith in God and each other strong enough to rebuild their dreams?
