Bound Together (We Kinky Three Book 4) Kira Barker

Erin is facing the hardest decision of her life—and it will not only influence her life, but also Simon and Jack's.

What is more important to her—her career and independence, or building the family she never had? Her recent altercations with Simon don't bode well where compromise is concerned, and with Jack emotionally withdrawing from her, she feels more alone than ever before. But the great things in life are worth fighting for, and Erin has never shied away from conflict.

Can the three of them make them work—and do they want to?
