Have perplexing dreams with their obscure images been suspected of containing any hidden meanings? Were their nightly pictorials thought as possibly being encrypted with transcendent messages requiring an understanding beyond average resources? Did their graphics require having someone knowledgeable with interpreting the meanings of dreams and visions; especially those of spiritual nature? Within the pages of this book, readers can gain valuable insight into the meaning of dreams and visions. That unique perception is achieved through the author's life experiences as he traverses the reader with him through some of his surprising, heartrending, soul-searching, yet totally enlightening events. The author, through his personal encounters with dreams and visions of seemingly other kinds escorts the reader from the days of his early childhood, and across the pages of his life into latter years, when some of those prophetic dreams actually evolved into fulfillment. God's Dream Catcher was published in 2008 and God's Dream Catcher 1.0 in 2015 as its first revised edition. This improved book contains additional dreams not included in the first edition. Those entries along with updated information and dozens of photographs, provides a much-greater-quality literary work. With the publishing of the first edition, the author discovered many individuals were of the misguided concept that dreamcatcher images were evil and were repulsed by the cover design. Therefore, with this second edition the book cover was totally revised to remove images of dreamcatchers. Thus, those of strict religious standards will find this edition very rewarding to their faith.
