This book is the result of face to face interviews with three high ranking officials of the notorious Numbers Gang of South Africa, the gang said to run South African Prisons. The three interviewees are all well known murderers, drug lords and thieves. Their true identities are hidden as they have spoken out against the Gang Code which ruled their lives for years. The punishment for breaking their silence on their code is Death! The book follows their journey from the day they entered the Number, their crimes, their prison time and present day life. this journey is a compelling and intriguing look at the dark world of gang life in South Africa.
