Charles A. Goodrich (1790-1862) has written one the best books on the on the lives of the men who framed and founded our great nation. Goodrich gives moving details about the lives of the men who laid the foundation of the great nation that has been blessed by God for over 237 years. The Providence of God is seen in the way he prepared these men for the work that they were set to accomplish. In a day when America is being challenged from without and within, and when the place of personal faith is considered irrelevant in the political arena, it is refreshing to see the vital role these played in the founding of this country.
